

CALL FOR PAPERS 2019

CENTRE FOR CORPORATE RESEARCH LAW JOURNAL

Issue IV (2019)

Centre for Corporate Research Law Journal (CCRLJ), ISSN No. 2348-6384, an open access, annual, peer reviewed, refereed journal is an initiative by CENTRE FOR CORPORATE LAW STUDIES at Institute of Law, Nirma University. The intricacies of corporate world have grown manifold times with the developments taking place every hour at the national and international level. The globalization web requires corporate businesses to not just be limited to Company and its allied laws, rather have a holistic understanding from environmental, social and cultural level as well. The Centre has taken up several initiatives in the form of publications, debates and regular interactions to keep pace with this dynamic era.

The Centre is proud to announce the launch of third issue of its Journal on Corporate Law. The multidimensional policies, tactics and amendments changing the global market have impacted India. The journal thus provides a platform to academicians, practitioners, researchers, students and other stakeholders in the field to deliberate upon the recent developments undergone by the corporate world.

The Centre invites Articles, Short Notes, Book Reviews and Case Commentaries to delve deep into different perspectives and critically analyze the current policies along with suggesting valuable, rational, legal ideas. The theme of the write-ups has been kept open for free flow of intellectual ideas relating to the business arena.
